About The Casino Entertainment Center

The Casino has been a landmark in downtown Mount Pocono since the early 1920s. Back then, a "casino" was a place for any kind of social amusements. Our Casino was a dance and music hall, as well as a place to show "moving pictures." So we've been "The Casino" long before the slots machines came to town!

Our family has owned and operated The Casino since 1975, when George & Sheila Litz and two other couples bought the movie house and renovated it. They reopened the Casino Theatre that year after adding an old-fashioned ice cream parlor called the Village Malt Shoppe.

Less than a year later, on March 11, 1976, a fire of undetermined origin burned the old building to the ground. A new building — the one you are in now — opened just four months later, on July 4.

IN MEMORY OF OUR MOTHERS

Our Casino family began with them

Sheila Litz
1936-2004

Elsie Struckle
1928-2009

Over the years, George and Sheila added a kitchen, miniature golf course and a game room. The size of the Village Malt Shoppe doubled. The movie theater was twinned in 2003, and began showing first-run films. The 1950s theme dates to 2004, when a gift shop featuring retro items was added.

Today, after 34 years, the business is still owned by our family and growing under second-generation management. With the movie theater, malt shop, restaurant, arcade room, gift shop and miniature golf operation, we are known as the Casino Theatre Entertainment Center.

And we remain committed to operating The Casino as a place for reasonably priced family fun.
